This book has it all! Audition tested, industry approved! Audition Monologues: Power Pieces for Kids and Teens is a collection of comedic and dramatic monologues for males and females between the ages 4 to 17. The monologues represent how today's young person would say it. Expressively written in a way to enable the actor to project emotional range effectively and to experience the situation of the character, first hand. The content is powerful, includes surprising twists, and is appealing to both professional and amateur actors, including all ethnic backgrounds. Industry professionals such as casting directors, agents, acting coaches and actors have highly praised this book and actively recommend it to their colleagues and peers. Often casting decisions are made within one-minute's time, therefore, a two to four minute monologue can be lengthy and inappropriate. Audition Monologues: Power Pieces for Kids and Teens offers over 60 one-minute monologues with unlimited character choices. The audition tips included in this book are invaluable because they have been written from an Agent's point of view. Author, Deborah Maddox, has fifteen years experience booking actors all over the United States. The content is informative and actor friendly. Keep them on the edge of their seats with this entertaining monologue collection.
